

FSK 18

FSK 18 is a German television channel for children and teenagers.

It is part of the FSK 18+ rating system, which is used to classify films and television programs according to their content.

The FSK 18+ rating indicates that the content is suitable for persons aged 18 and over.

FSK 18+ is the highest rating in the FSK system, indicating that the content is suitable for persons aged 18 and over.

FSK 18+ is a rating system used in Germany to classify films and television programs according to their content.

The FSK 18+ rating indicates that the content is suitable for persons aged 18 and over.

FSK 18+ is the highest rating in the FSK system, indicating that the content is suitable for persons aged 18 and over.

FSK 18+ is a rating system used in Germany to classify films and television programs according to their content.

The FSK 18+ rating indicates that the content is suitable for persons aged 18 and over.

FSK 18+ is the highest rating in the FSK system, indicating that the content is suitable for persons aged 18 and over.

FSK 18+ is a rating system used in Germany to classify films and television programs according to their content.

The FSK 18+ rating indicates that the content is suitable for persons aged 18 and over.

FSK 18+ is the highest rating in the FSK system, indicating that the content is suitable for persons aged 18 and over.

FSK 18+ is a rating system used in Germany to classify films and television programs according to their content.

The FSK 18+ rating indicates that the content is suitable for persons aged 18 and over.